TO KALON VINEYARD COMPANY'S NEW RELEASES

Winemaker Andy Erickson of To Kalon Vineyard Company hosted a dinner at Saga on October 19 to share the newest vintages of the winery's incredible assortment of Cabernet Sauvignon: Highest Beauty 2018, Eliza's 2019, and H.W.C. 2019

CHAMPAGNE HENRIOT EXPERIENCES THE UNEXPECTED

In an evening of surprise, guests were invited to attend the unveiling of Henriot L'Inattendue at an unknown venue. After arriving at Malson Sun, a dining speakeasy in SoHo, guests were walked through the Champagne Henriot wines with winemaker Alice Tétienne and marketing director Amelie Derrieux-Sable. Tasting the Henriot Brut Souverain, Henriot Blanc de Blancs, and the Cuvée Hermitage, guests were able to ask Tétienne about winemaking processes and hear about the illustrious history of Champagne Henriot. After the first three wines, guests were invited upstairs to a roof deck with a 360-degree view of the Manhattan skyline where Henriot L'Inattendue was poured, tasted, and enjoyed.

AN EVENING WITH MAZE ROW WINE MERCHANT

On October 24, at the Fotografiska Museum in New York City, Maze Row Wine Merchant brought together acclaimed producers from its portfolio and a diverse range of media and trade for a launch celebration. Maze Row is a U.S. importer and exporter of fine wines, and at its core are the dedicated artists and producer families creating truly singular, terroir-driven wines. Joe C. Gallo, Maze Row's founder, hosted the event. The celebration aimed to break with traditional tastings to create a meaningful and memorable experience, highlighting Maze Row's guiding philosophy: "In Wine, We Find Life".

BOLLINGER'S FIRST SINGLE-PLOT CUVÉE

Champagne Bollinger hosted an intimate luncheon with managing director Charles-Armand de Belenet on October 21. Over the meal at Le Bernardin, guests were invited to taste La Côteaux Enfants 2012, Bollinger's first-ever single-plot cuvée. It's also the third and final product innovation of Bollinger's sparkling Pinot Noir collection alongside the PN series and Vieilles Vignes Françaises.

DOMAINE LEFLAIVE 2020 VINTAGE RELEASE TASTING AND LUNCHEON

On October 14, Domaine Leflaive's fourth generation and proprietor Brice de La Morandière hosted a tasting and luncheon at Le Bernardin to present the winery's 2020 vintage release. Morandière spoke about the success of the vintage while guests were invited to taste through several wines from the range, including highlights such as the Pouilly-Fuissé 2020 and the Chevalier-Montrachet Grand Cru 2020.
